

You are invited to a forum addressing

New York State School Financing: A Dutchess County Update

featuring keynote speakers

Senator Stephen Saland

Chairman, Senate Education Committee

and

Mr. Peter Applebee

Deputy Director, New York State Senate Finance Committee

Topics include:

- What has changed in state aid and property tax reform for this academic year?
- What changes or reforms are anticipated for the new academic year and the future?
- What is the impact on Dutchess County school districts and taxpayers?

A question and answer period follows with an opportunity to informally talk with legislators including Assemblymen Joel Miller and Marcus Molinaro.

Wednesday, January 9, 2008 at 7 p.m.

(Snow date January 10, 2008 at 7 p.m.)

Millbrook High School Auditorium

70 Church Street, Millbrook, New York

For additional information please visit

<http://worknotes.com/NY/Millbrook/REF/h1.stm>

Sponsored by Reform in Educational Funding (REF), Help Arlington Lower Taxes (HALT), and the Dutchess County School Boards Association (DCSBA)